Description :

PDF-a9f22 | The Dutch Republic in the 17th century was home to one of the greatest flowerings of painting in the history of Western art. Freed from the constraints of royal and church patronage, artists created a rich outpouring of works that circulated through an open market to patrons and customers at every level of Dutch society. The closely observed details of daily life captured in portraits, genre scene... Class Distinctions: Dutch Painting in the Age of Rembrandt and Vermeer
