Description :

PDF-53589 | Between the postwar years and the 1980s in Britain, and in particular in London, a number of figurative painters simultaneously reinvented the way in which life is represented in art. Focusing on the depiction of the human figure, these artists rendered the frailty and vitality of the human condition. Offering a fresh account of developments that have since characterized postwar British painting... London Calling: Bacon, Freud, Kossoff, Andrews, Auerbach, and Kitaj
