Description :

PDF-d85c2 | Featuring nearly 90 paintings and drawings from Philip Guston's (1913–1980) Abstract Expressionist period, this book explores a decade in which the artist confronted aesthetic concerns of the New York School, questioning modes of image making and what it means to paint abstractly. In the number and quality of paintings from this period, the book parallels Guston's important 1966 survey exhib... Philip Guston: Painter: 1957–1967
