Description :

PDF-e3350 | Robert Motherwell (1915–1991) was one of the preeminent Abstract Expressionists and a spokesperson for that generation of artists. During a career that lasted half a century, he created a large and varied body of work, constantly reinventing and refining his signature motifs. He produced some of the most innovative and profound imagery of the 20th century, such as the Elegy to the Spanish Republ... Robert Motherwell Paintings and Collages: A Catalogue Raisonné, 1941-1991 (3 Vol Set)
