Description :

PDF-a8aab | Filled with a wide array of illustrations, this book offers a fresh perspective on surrealism as it spotlights the important role that North American women artists played in the movement. The surrealist movement in art is most often identified with male artists, many of whom objectified women in their paintings, casting them as sexual or symbolic ideals. Conversely, the female artists of the movem... In Wonderland: The Surrealist Adventures of Women Artists in Mexico and the United States
